Text: Sophie’s World
Author: Jostein Gaarder
Published in English: 1994

| Your Name: |
|---|---|
| Chapter title: | Socrates |

Setting and plot (brief description) 3-5 Sentences

Philosopher (what are the details? Name, dates, country, education, beliefs,) 4-8 sentences

Philosophy (what does it say? basic tenets, major understandings, key ideas) 6-10 sentences

Questions about the text (write at least one question about the philosophy discussed)

Take a picture of a drawing of your own, reflecting your understanding of this philosophy and upload it into the box below.
Chapter title: Plato

Setting and plot (brief description) 3-5 Sentences

Philosopher (what are the details? Name, dates, country, education, beliefs,) 4-8 sentences

Philosophy (what does it say? basic tenets, major understandings, key ideas) 6-10 sentences

Questions about the text (write at least one question about the philosophy discussed)

Take a picture of a drawing of your own, reflecting your understanding of this philosophy and upload it into the box below.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Chapter title:</th>
<th>Aristotle</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Setting and plot (brief description) 3-5 Sentences

Philosopher (what are the details? Name, dates, country, education, beliefs, ) 4-8 sentences

Philosophy (what does it say? basic tenets, major understandings, key ideas) 6-10 sentences

Questions about the text (write at least one question about the philosophy discussed)

Take a picture of a drawing of your own, reflecting your understanding of this philosophy and upload it into the box below.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Chapter title:</th>
<th>Descartes</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Setting and plot (brief description) 3-5 Sentences

Philosopher (what are the details? Name, dates, country, education, beliefs,) 4-8 sentences

Philosophy (what does it say? basic tenets, major understandings, key ideas) 6-10 sentences

Questions about the text (write at least one question about the philosophy discussed)

Take a picture of a drawing of your own, reflecting your understanding of this philosophy and upload it into the box below.
Chapter title: Spinoza

Setting and plot (brief description) 3-5 Sentences

Philosopher (what are the details? Name, dates, country, education, beliefs, ) 4-8 sentences

Philosophy (what does it say? basic tenets, major understandings, key ideas) 6-10 sentences

Questions about the text (write at least one question about the philosophy discussed)

Take a picture of a drawing of your own, reflecting your understanding of this philosophy and upload it into the box below.
Chapter title: Locke

Setting and plot (brief description) 3-5 Sentences

Philosopher (what are the details? Name, dates, country, education, beliefs, ) 4-8 sentences

Philosophy (what does it say? basic tenets, major understandings, key ideas) 6-10 sentences

Questions about the text (write at least one question about the philosophy discussed)

Take a picture of a drawing of your own, reflecting your understanding of this philosophy and upload it into the box below.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Chapter title:</th>
<th>Hume</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Setting and plot (brief description) 3-5 Sentences

Philosopher (what are the details? Name, dates, country, education, beliefs, ) 4-8 sentences

Philosophy (what does it say? basic tenets, major understandings, key ideas) 6-10 sentences

Questions about the text (write at least one question about the philosophy discussed)

Take a picture of a drawing of your own, reflecting your understanding of this philosophy and upload it into the box below.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Chapter title:</th>
<th>Kant</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Setting and plot (brief description) 3-5 Sentences

Philosopher (what are the details? Name, dates, country, education, beliefs, ) 4-8 sentences

Philosophy (what does it say? basic tenets, major understandings, key ideas) 6-10 sentences

Questions about the text (write at least one question about the philosophy discussed)

Take a picture of a drawing of your own, reflecting your understanding of this philosophy and upload it into the box below.
Chapter title: Hegel

Setting and plot (brief description) 3-5 Sentences

Philosopher (what are the details? Name, dates, country, education, beliefs, ) 4-8 sentences

Philosophy (what does it say? basic tenets, major understandings, key ideas) 6-10 sentences

Questions about the text (write at least one question about the philosophy discussed)

Take a picture of a drawing of your own, reflecting your understanding of this philosophy and upload it into the box below.
Chapter title: Kierkegaard

Setting and plot (brief description) 3-5 Sentences

Philosopher (what are the details? Name, dates, country, education, beliefs, ) 4-8 sentences

Philosophy (what does it say? basic tenets, major understandings, key ideas) 6-10 sentences

Questions about the text (write at least one question about the philosophy discussed)

Take a picture of a drawing of your own, reflecting your understanding of this philosophy and upload it into the box below.
| Chapter title: | Marx |

Setting and plot (brief description) 3-5 Sentences

Philosopher (what are the details? Name, dates, country, education, beliefs, ) 4-8 sentences

Philosophy (what does it say? basic tenets, major understandings, key ideas) 6-10 sentences

Questions about the text (write at least one question about the philosophy discussed)

Take a picture of a drawing of your own, reflecting your understanding of this philosophy and upload it into the box below.
Chapter title: Freud

Setting and plot (brief description) 3-5 Sentences

Philosopher (what are the details? Name, dates, country, education, beliefs, ) 4-8 sentences

Philosophy (what does it say? basic tenets, major understandings, key ideas) 6-10 sentences

Questions about the text (write at least one question about the philosophy discussed)

Take a picture of a drawing of your own, reflecting your understanding of this philosophy and upload it into the box below.